

JOHN

Chapter 18

◆ Day 1 – “Jesus, knowing all that would happen to Him, came forward”

(John 18:1–9) Question: Jesus stepped forward to meet betrayal and suffering head-on. When facing pain or fear, do I hide or step forward with trust in God's purpose for me?

JOHN

◆ Day 3 – Peter’s First Denial (John 18:12–18)

Question: Like Peter, I may falter under pressure. When have I denied Jesus—not necessarily with words, but with silence, compromise, or fear? What does repentance look like for me?

JOHN

Chapter 18

◆ Day 4 – Jesus Before the High Priest (John 18:19–24)

Question: Jesus spoke truth calmly and confidently in the face of unjust questioning. How do I respond when I’m misunderstood, accused, or treated unfairly?

JOHN

Chapter 18

◆ Day 5 – Peter Denies Jesus Again (John 18:25–27)

Question: Peter's fear led him to deny even knowing Jesus. What fears keep me from publicly identifying with Christ—and how can I grow in courage and faithfulness?

JOHN

Chapter 18

◆ Day 6 – “My kingdom is not of this world” (John 18:28–36)

Question: Jesus’ kingdom doesn’t operate by the world’s systems of power or control. In what ways am I still trying to follow Jesus while clinging to worldly values or ambitions?

JOHN

Chapter 18

◆ Day 7 – “What is truth?” (John 18:37–40)

Question: Pilate asked the right question but didn’t wait for the answer. How seriously do I pursue truth—not just facts, but the person of Jesus—and how does that pursuit shape my life?
